Sure Shot

The O.C. Supertones

I wanna do the right thing
I wanna be the sure shot
I wanna have my mind straight
I wanna have my point gotI wanna be a good man
I wanna have my act down
I wanna be the future
And I wanna be right nowSometimes I feel
Like I can change the world
But I don't know where to start
I dig and come up empty
Clutching an empty heartI wanna see a life change
I wanna see a new man
I wanna fight the good fight
I wanna take the right standI wanna be like Jesus
I wanna pour my heart out
I wanna pick my cross up
I wanna hear the mob shoutI'm wide awake
And thinking about the cross
The Trinity apart
I dig and come up empty
Clutching an empty heart
