

Make It Up

Shura

One girl on the last train
Small change in the universe, says she
Speaks to herself out loud
Nobody ever looks up at her And she says
"I wonder what you're thinking now"
Is there something that we could've said?
Would it have made a difference? Do you ever make it up?
Do you ever make it up?
Do wake up in the night and change your mind?
Do you ever make it up? One night across town
Her friends are calling cause they haven't seen her
But she won't pick up the phone right now
And they keep asking cause she's been so quiet
And, oh, do you wonder what she's thinking now?
Is there something that we could've said?
Would it have made a difference? Do you ever make it up?
Do you ever make it up?
Do wake up in the night and change your mind?
Do you ever make it up? Do you ever make it up?
Do you ever make it up?
Do wake up in the night and change your mind?
Do you ever make it up? Still got time to change your mind
Still got time to change your mind
Still got time to change your mind Do you ever make it up?
Do you ever make it up?
Do wake up in the night and change your mind?
Do you ever make it up?
Do you ever make it up?
Do you ever make it up?
Do wake up in the night and change your mind?
Do you ever make it up? Do you ever make it...
Still got time to change your mind
Do you ever make it... Do you ever make it...
Still got time to change your mind
Make it...
