

The New in Bloom

As Cities Burn

in slaying myself i will start now
in slaying myself i will start now i am run by the use of my own hand's knife to kill the life i've held too tight i dress me in maroon the new is in bloomthis knife, the life i have in you, runs me through this knife, the life i have in you, runs me through into the new bloomhow are you so string to hold me in your arms while i sink this into your back is it that so we could be your hands were nailed to me your hands were nailed to mein slaying myself i will start in slaying myself i will start now in slaying myself i will start nowyour hands were nailed to me
