My Child

Carlene Davis

Peacefully you are sleeping
Silently you dream
And I cannot help but feel blessed
While watching you
Your eyes, my eyes
Your smile, my smile
Your love, my gain
Your hurt, my pain
Your laugh, my joy
Every time it's mine, you are my child
I will always protect you
Oh and I will even let you go
I'll spend the sweetest time holding you
And I will let you grow
Your eyes, my eyes
Your smile, my smile
Your love, my gain
Your hurt, my pain
Your laugh, my joy
Every time it's mine, you are my child
Don't ever be afraid, don't ever be afraid
'Cause I am here and if you start to fear
Just close your eyes and hear me say
Your love, my gain
Your hurt, my pain
Your laugh, my joy
Every time it's mine, you are my child
