Let Me Fly With You

Lovebugs

i wake from dreams of you and find that they're all coming true you are lying next to me there's no greater fortune free in your arms so dearthere's no sorrow and there's no fear drift off to a distant land we'll be dancing hand in hand making love on golden sandlet me fly with you on wings of love with you i'll make your every wish come true just let me fly with youmorning light shines through into the window onto you you take my breath away living this dream day for day forever i hope and pray
