Violate

Machine Head

I want you to know this
I want you to know just what I feel
You told me through sacred lies
I told you once with bloodshot eyes
You told me don't ask
Just stay away from me
You told me it'd be alright
I told you once, then told you twice
You can't face
Can't you face meI won't pray for you
I can't pray for you
Because you took it away
Because you took it from meThought I could never ever fuckin' find another
Get a muthafuckin' chance again
Because the power is the rage that can devour
Gotta make that fear descendWithout it, you ain't shit
And you ain't shit to me
Berating, a scathing
Grave indignityI see the look inside your eyes
It makes me sick
Defiling innocence
Is how you get your kicks
You violate, and then you think yourself a man
You violate, and then you call yourself a manDon't come my way
Don't care what you say
Pray you fuckin' die
Before you feel my ...Rage...
