By the Way

Nick Gill

Foggy eyes it's another cold campus day,
Could I be me around you what would I say?
How can you be hated and love?
How can you be jaded and rise above?

By the way, you don't need a pot of gold to tell
Me that your love is gold, by the way,
By the way, you know that you need the love tonight to
Make it all alright by the way,

Every broken heart claims your name,
And all of them are all all the same,
How can you be hated and love?
How can you be jaded and rise above?
