Alouette & Me

Letters to Cleo

So you'd trade me in for them
When they're so mean
I wouldn't do that if I were you
Why would you say all those love things
When you knew you'd leave?
I wouldn't say that if I were youAlouette and me
I don't wanna know you lately
Alouette and me
Why did you go ruin everything?In a dream I held my head up
But I'm not brave
Let them see it, what you've done
Stultifier, you're such a liar
And you should be so ashamed
Let them see it, what you've doneAlouette and me
I don't wanna know you lately
Alouette and me
Why did you go ruin everything?But it's alright and I'm not mad
Even though I'm not there for you no moreAlouette and me
Just mark off the territory
It's the strangest thing
It doesn't hurt but I won't forget the stingBut it's alright and I'm not mad
Even though I'm not there for you no more
