Slowly

The Merkin Dream

Saw your face, turned away,
Never gave a second thought,
Never looked at you that way,
Searching for, someone else,
I didn't hear the fireworks,
We were dancing with ourselves.
Then you come close and knock me out, oh.
Slowly, slowly, changing me slowly,
Driving with your heart,
Kissing in the dark,
The way you hold me, hold me,
Turn with me slowly,
This is where it starts,
Kissing in the dark.
You're a thorn, in my soul,
That cuts at first,
But now I'm feeling something wonderful,
More fool me, to let you drive,
You can push me all you want,
But I'll fall when I decide.

But then you come close and knock me out, oh.
Slowly, slowly, changing me slowly,
Driving with your heart,
Kissing in the dark,
The way you hold me, hold me,
Turn with me slowly,
This is where it starts,
Kissing in the dark.
It makes me shiver,
That I could have missed you,
It makes me shiver,
That I could have missed you.
Slowly, slowly, changing me slowly,
Driving with your heart,
Kissing in the dark,
The way you hold me, hold me,
Turn with me slowly,
This is where it starts,

Kissing in the dark.
