

Good Enough

Hoobastank

I only wanted you to feel
How I thought you deserved to feel
The way you always said you wanted to You wanted all we have to be real
And every word we say to be true
Still after all I gave it's not enough for you Well, I can't give any more
So now I'm giving up
'Cause nothing's ever good enough And the more I try to pour
The less I fill your cup
'Cause nothing's ever good enough I only wanted you to see
That you can be who you wanted to be
And fill the lonely void inside of you I gave you everything that you need
Did what you always wanted to do
Still after all I've done, I can't get through Well, I can't give any more
So now I'm giving up
'Cause nothing's ever good enough And the more I try to pour
The less I fill your cup
'Cause nothing's ever good enough
Good enough I've wasted my time, go find someone else Well, I can't give any more
So now I'm giving up
'Cause nothing's ever good enough And the more I try to pour
The less I fill your cup
'Cause nothing's ever good enough
Good enough
