

Cheater

School Gyrls

Cheater, cheater you're a, you're a cheater, you're a cheater
Cheater, cheater you're a, you're a cheater, you're a cheater
Cheater, cheater you're a, you're a cheater, you're a cheater
Cheater, cheater you're a, you're a, you're a, you're a cheater
You thought that I would just be another one of your toys
You thought I wouldn't find out, but you went and told your boys
Your boys told my girls and my girls, they put me up on game
See, the plan that you had ended up being super lame
So you called me last night acting like you were extra sorry
Then you past me a letter today as soon as you saw me
Saying "baby I know that I did you wrong but I promise I'm done"
And it's not that I don't wanna believe you because I do
But everytime I try to you give me a reason not to
This is gonna be the easiest song that I've ever sung
All my girls sing along, it goes like OH
You won't get another love song, you're a cheater
After everything that you've done wrong, you're a cheater
No you won't get another word out of me, you're a che-che-che-che-che-che-cheater
Cheater, cheater you're a, you're a cheater, you're a cheater
Cheater, cheater you're a, you're a cheater, you're a cheater
I bet you thought I wouldn't bounce back but I did
No stronger than I was before you ever cheated

Why would I yell, Why would I waste a minute on you when I look this cute
Still I can't check my voicemails without hearing your voice
And you send me messages through every one of your boys
I think you're obsessed with me, this is ridiculous, please
I don't need you in my world, I'm fine chillin with my girls
And it's not that I don't wanna believe you because I do
But everytime I try to you give me a reason not to
It's so incredible we played this song, we just knew that it would be the one
All my girls sing along, it goes like OH
You won't get another love song, you're a cheater
After everything that you've done wrong, you're a cheater
No you won't get another word out of me, you're a che-che-che-che-che-che-cheater
Cheater, cheater you're a, you're a cheater, you're a cheater
Cheater, cheater you're a, you're a cheater, you're a cheater
This could have been another love song for you
But you went and messed it up so now we're through

So I'm starting over just like I told
Imma be fine now that everyone knows you're a cheater, Oh
You won't get another love song, you're a cheater
After everything that you've done wrong, you're a cheater
No you won't get another word out of me, you're a che-che-che-che-che-che-cheater
Cheater, cheater you're a, you're a cheater, you're a cheater
Cheater, cheater you're a, you're a cheater, you're a cheater
