

Break Down and Cry

Amaranthe

I wanna see through the darkness, don't wanna live with this fear
That I will come to the day when my heart stops to beat
And cope with the fact that I'll leave you to be Alone without guidance, inherit the throne
I am a man that was blind but you made me believe
No road is too long you, have given me peace Have a look in the mirror; a fallen hero
You came into my life when it was down on zero
I will never surrender this fight
I will stay till the end of the line Every little piece of my heart belongs
To you, I'll carry on
For you I'll sacrifice myself
Destiny was there to abandon me
You're my eternity, the reason I fight
Instead of just break down and cry There is this force of your presence; my fuel to be free
As I step into a void no predictions in sight
I never be lonely with you by my side Indescribable motion, a conjunction with fate
I wanna give you the stars like you show me the world
The meaning of life is your love in return Like I am back from the dead, you came close to my heart
Made a bond that will never be torn apart
I will never surrender this fight
I will stay till the end of the line Every little piece of my heart belongs
To you, I'll carry on
For you I'll sacrifice myself
Destiny was there to abandon me
You're my eternity, the reason I fight
Instead of just break down and cry (Like I am back from the dead, you came close to my heart)
(Made a bond that will never be torn apart)
(Have a look in the mirror; a fallen hero)
(You came into my life when it was down) Every little piece of my heart belongs
To you, I'll carry on
For you I'll sacrifice myself
Destiny was there to abandon me
You're my eternity, the reason I fight
Instead of just break down and cry
