Happy

Kellie Pickler

Possession means, they don't mean that much
It rains and they just turn to rust
We all, we all turn to dust
In the end, in the end
All the stars above don't mean a thing
And I don't care about fortune and fame
All the gold just stays lost
In the bottom of the deep blue sea
It don't matter much to me
I just wanna be happy
Hey. Lets be honest
Love's the only dream
That we all want, that everybody needs
Life's a train, it don't turn back
It's how you love, not what you have
In the end, oh in the end

All the stars above don't mean a thing
And I don't care about fortune and fame
All the gold just stays lost
In the bottom of the deep blue sea
It don't matter much to me
I just wanna be happy
And the sun's gonna come up
And the sky's gonna look down
And we're all gonna keep Spinnin' round and round
All the stars above don't mean a thing
And I don't care about fortune and fame
All the gold just stays lost
In the bottom of the deep blue sea
It don't matter much to me
I just wanna be happy

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/