

Justice for None

Tracedawn

Hold on to whatever you can
There will be blood to pay
What others build others destroy
For a greater goodMindless masses full of fear
Controlled by those who dareBroken limbs broken bones
Violence is what they know
Anger and grief grief and hate
And so it goesMindless masses full of fear
Controlled by those who dareBlue eyed lambs forever bound
To the will of the oneJustice for all! justice for none
Those who know love will soon forget all they know
