Charge

Celesty

[Delinom]
Now, that darkness has arrived
And the moon is only light
I'm crossing this line
To the land, which soon is, mineAnd I'm fighting for my pride
With this sword by my side
Cryon's warriors "go hell!"
I can hear the winning bell
The winning bell!I see, how all my men are lined
Only give them one more sign
And they are heading to fight
To fight for they rightAnd I raise my sword up high
So high up the sky
My troops on their way
This is a glorious dayI ride, and send my troops into fight
Soon they all will sing for victory
My troops and sword will help me on my way...
(And) I'll rule this world eternally
Eternally!!Now, that daylight has arrived
And I see the end of fight
I have won the war
Now it's time for second doorTo Fedoria I must ride
I'll be there before the night
Maegon must die
He has no place to hideI ride, and send my troops into fight
Soon they all will sing for victory
My troops and sword will help me on my way
(And) I'll rule this world eternally
I ride!
