

Flaws

Litany

You said that you've lost me
I didn't believe it
I'm expecting a new low for me
So i'm going home
Yeah maybe I could fight it
If only I had time to
But baby why, should I? And all of this stuff will break me
Don't break me
Hold on
All of this stuff will break me
Why you have to treat me like that?
It's taking all I have not to look back
When you gonna grow up and look past
Everybody else has flaws, so when will you see yours? I know it will cost me
I did not predict it
I'm expecting to lose hope
I'll be in a black hole
Yeah right now I look fine but
Come back in a day's time
So baby why, tonight? And all of this stuff will break me
Don't break me
Hold on
All of this stuff will break me
Why you have to treat me like that?
It's taking all I have not to look back
When you gonna grow up and look past
Everybody else has flaws, so when will you see yours?
