Everyday Is the Weekend

Myles Nelson

Verse:
Iâ€™ve been turned down been turnt up
Been a little buzzed been a little drunk
But I ainâ€™t ever felt
This feeling thats going through my veins
Everytime that I see your face
You got me hooked and I donâ€™t even know what to say
Itâ€™s like a book Iâ€™m stuck reading inside of my brain
But I donâ€™t wanna get lost inside of my thoughts I donâ€™t wanna get caught
But every part of me is telling me to fall

Chorus:
Cos youâ€™re like a clear cup, pour it up and take another shot
When youâ€™re in that dance floor I glance more
You donâ€™t care if I watch
Girl when I see you move
I canâ€™t believe it
Everything that you do
I just gotta see it
In the venue, the avenue, or the parking lot
I want that good kiss through my lips
Make my heart stop
Girl youâ€™re the only thing I wanna stay drinking
You make it seem like everyday is the weekend.
Is the weekend

Verse 2:
Iâ€™ve been to a lot of bars seen a lot of broken parts
Seen a lot of girls spending money on debit cards
Wasting all of their time and efforts on
Some guy that ainâ€™t even gonna text em
And Iâ€™ve met a lot of women in different positions
The only difference is I never met one I wanna get with like you and I know it may be soon
But what else do I gotta lose?
And I donâ€™t need another drink cos I already see l. Everything I want right in front of me. Oh the places you take me so come on now baby, donâ€™t leave me hanging.

Chorus. (2x)
