Back from the Dead

Spinal Tap

Give me Reincarnation
Or give me deathWe're back from the dead
Or so it is saidWe're back from the grave
It's life that we craveOh watch our hearts pump as we go back into action
Hmm giving satisfaction and getting some too
And hear our blood roar as we roll a lucky seven
From hell or from heaven We're past but we're dueWe're back from the dead
And ready for bedWe're out of the shroud
And back with our crowdNothing's more fun than flipping off the Reaper
We're back on our beeper heading straight for the top
It's not so hard to avoid a mid-death crisis
No coffee no spices but rock till you dropWhen the blood red moon peeps over the naked hills
When the nightshade blooms beside the rocky road to daylight's end
And the spirits reinhabit their cast away bodies of yore
Don't say i didn't warn youohhhhhhhhhhhhh ohhhhhhhhhhhh
ohhhhhhhhhhhh
ohhhhhhhhhhhh
ohhhhhhhhhhhhWe're back and we're glad
And here to be hadWe're back from the dead
And we're banging your head a ha ha haBetter off dead than still better off living
The gift keeps on giving andit's taking no more
No time like the past but no rhyme like the present
The first shall be last and we're slamming death's door
