

Make It Happen

Machine Gun Kelly

Okay, I got a question
Am I loud out there?
I mean, do you really hear me? Huh? The definition of greatness
Is in the making you're witnessing the amazing
Blame me if you awaken you've been sleeping too long
On the one who was chosen motherfucker
You're probably unaware
But I'm here to let you know it, take a listen
Shut the fuck up for once and just enjoy it, real Music
Bullshit on the daily? Try to avoid it
Your life's ass, similar to a toilet huh?
You see me living chasing everything I wanted, huh?
Forever blunted, ready for whatever coming, huh?
The mailman keep the check coming
The cash in keep the 'vette running
Stop sign? Bitch I run that Look at where I hung at,
Bunch of Eastside boys on the field, punt that, Ball 4 life!
Give me some shrooms for the serotonin
Me and the crew living for the moment
Everything we wanted is ours Put me in a fast car
Big house with a beach for a backyard
Stress free 'cause I ain't trying to live with it
The state of mind that I'm in got me thinking different
I used to dream until I
Realized it wasn't shit in reality
'Cause you can make it happen and I'ma make it happen
You gon' watch me make it happen, bet you gon' remember me Uh, when you see me in that fast car
Big house with a beach for a backyard
Stress free I ain't trying to live with it
The state of mind that I'm in got me thinking different
I used to dream until I
Realized it wasn't shit in reality
'Cause you can make it happen and I'ma make it happen
You gon' watch me make it happen, bet they gon' remember me Bet they gon' remember me Damn, so many people got them hating faces
Like why you mad at me? I'm just out here getting faces
Irritated with these bitches and their crazy ways, when
All I wanted was some head on a lazy day, damn

(Where you been?) On the other side of the map
 Taking naps in first class getting paid to rap paid off
 Having jobs since the seventh grade
 Got laid off ever since I've been self made
 See my homie wanna see me win
 Fronted me some bands told me "Youngin go and get it in"
 He believed in it more than I, So I gotta ride
 Down to die for my dawgs, yep, EST 4 Life
 Opportunity took advantage I gotta manage
 Even when it's hard, hard times, yea, what would I be without it?
 The struggle made me tougher, forcing me to hustle money in demand
 Fuck fame ain't nothing but trouble dawg
 I'm never perfect, I got flaws like a lot of ya'll
 Who be criticizing on the low, hating on ya boy
 Ya'll defensive maybe that's why I offend you
 When I dribble through my legs in the mall when it's time to ball
 Life on the edge, hope I never fall
 Though you pray I do, what a shame
 But I maintain shooting for the stars
 Let it bang bitch I'm out of range
 And just know I shoot back with my rap name Put me in a fast car
 Big house with a beach for a backyard
 Stress free 'cause I ain't trying to live with it
 The state of mind that I'm in got me thinking different
 I used to dream until I
 Realized it wasn't shit in reality
 'Cause you can make it happen and I'ma make it happen
 You gon' watch me make it happen bet you gon' remember me Uh, when you see me in that fast car
 Big house with a beach for a backyard
 Stress free I ain't trying to live with it
 The state of mind that I'm in got me thinking different
 I used to dream until I
 Realized it wasn't shit in reality
 'Cause you can make it happen and I'ma make it happen
 You gon' watch me make it happen, bet they gon' remember me They gon' remember me
 Bet they gon' remember me Bet they gon' remember me Bet they gon' remember me
 Bet they gon' remember me
 Bet they gon' remember me Bet they gon' remember me
