

Season Of Love

Jaci Velasquez

Where a prayer could be enough
Our hands open up and give a little
More
Crowded hearts make room
Kindness falls like the snow
Tenderness like a row of dominoes

Season of love
A chance to shine in the darkness
To be hope, to give joy
All over the world it's Christmas
The season of love
Christ is here with us
In our hearts, through our hands
Love is the season

Holy infant Son of God
You are the light inside of every one
Of us
Miracle on earth
We see your star, feel your peace
You are why this will always be the

Season of love
A chance to shine in the darkness
To be hope, to give joy
All over the world it's Christmas
The season of love
Christ is here with us
In our hearts, through our hands
Love is the season

Love is the season
