Inc.

until its over until the day is done ill look to find you when all the pain is gonei will be another ill put out my hand i know youll look to find it i know youll understandi know its a time to defined you would give your life to be desired i dont want my time to be decided i can see a lifetime in your eyesit gave me what i needed you showed me what i had too much to leave alone too much to be unsaid all of the words are gone all of the time is spent nothing to be forgiven
i know youll understandi know its a time to defined
i can see a lifetime in your eyesunderneath the time underneath the light ill be under you ill be underneath the lighti know its a time to defined
you would give your life to be desired
i can see a lifetime in your eyes i know its a time to defined
you would give your life to be desired
this could be a life youll never find you could always leave it all behind
