

Love In the Hour

The Butchies

hold you what you want you what you want you what you need to need too know you who you are you what you do you need you me too i do no don't leave me here now what a cold heart says love hears such sounds lovin' the hour our love is sewn give them what they want oh no oh when were so cold you don't seem such a far cry to hold don't you know by now lovin' the hour our love is sewn givin' it all to sail your soul now you know how sweet it will feel
