

Right Action

Franz Ferdinand

Come home practically all is nearly forgiven
Right thoughts, right words, right action
Almost everything could be forgotten
Right thoughts, right words, right action But how can we leave you
To a Saturday night or a Sunday morning
Good morning Sometimes I wish you were here, weather permitting
This time, same as before, I'll love you forever
Right thoughts, right words, right action But how can we leave you
To a Saturday night or a Sunday morning
Good morning 11 South Court Gardens
England's Lane past end to London Sometimes I wish you were here, weather permitting
