Dance Alone

Poor But Sexy

There you go on your own, standing up against the wall
I hear the music calling you, it's calling me, don't think that we should stop
It's in your eyes, I can see, you want to ask but you don't have the nerve
Here's my invite please accept R.S.V.P, I know you got the urge
No need of leavin' early you found somebody to move with
Ain't no need of looking around, I'm standing in front of your face
Don't try to fight the feelin', we've got to live in the moment
I'm ready whenever you say so
You don't have to dance alone not here, my arms are open wide
I'm here for you, so don't take down my hand
Don't dance alone the floor was made for us
And don't hesitate to love and [Incomprehensible]
There you go sitting down trying to keep your cool
But you hear the rhythm calling you
It's calling to me, you ain't got nothin' to lose
A spot light shining on us both, the time is now, you got a life to live
Won't let this moment pass us by not tonight

We got a show to give, there's no need
No need of leavin' early you found somebody to move with
Ain't no need of looking around, I'm standing in front of your face
Don't try to fight the feelin', we've got to live in the moment
I'm ready whenever you say so
You don't have to dance alone not here, my arms are open wide
I'm here for you, so don't take down my hand
Don't dance alone the floor was made for us
And don't hesitate to love and [Incomprehensible]
[Foreign content]You don't have to dance alone not here, my arms are open wide
I'm here for you, so don't take down my hand
Don't dance alone the floor was made for us
And don't hesitate to love and [Incomprehensible]
