

One Foot

Fun.

I'm standing in Brooklyn just waiting for something to happen.

I can't help but look thinking that everyone doesn't get it.

To my left there's a window

Where did I go?

My reflection just blends into rows of coats

And bad ideas, but ideas nonetheless and so

I put one foot in front of the other one. (Oh oh oh!)

I don't need a new love or a new life just a better place to die.

I put one foot in front of the other one. (Oh oh oh!)

I don't need a new love or a new life just a better place to die.

I put one foot in front of the other one. (Oh oh oh!)

I don't need a new love or a new life just a better place to die.

I happen to stumble upon a chapel last night.

And I can't help but back up when I think of what happens inside.

I got friends locked in boxes, that's no way to live.

What you call a sin isn't up to them.

After all, after all I thought we were all your children,

But I will die for my own sins thanks a lot.

We'll rise up ourselves thanks for nothing at all,
so up off the ground, our fore fathers are nothing but dust now.

I put one foot in front of the other one. (Oh oh oh!)

I don't need a new love or a new life just a better place to die.

I put one foot in front of the other one. (Oh oh oh!)

I don't need a new love or a new life just a better place to die.

Maybe I should learn to shut my mouth.

I am over twenty-five and I can't make a name for myself some nights I break down and cry

I'm lucky that my father's still alive he's been fighting all his life and if this is all I've ever know then may his soul live on forever in my song.

I put one foot in front of the other one. (Oh oh oh!)

I don't need a new love or a new life just a better place to die.

I put one foot in front of the other one. (Oh oh oh!)

I don't need a new love or a new life just a better place to die.

In front of the other one

In front of the other one

Just a better place to die.
