Where Did She Go

The Struts

Oh oh oh where did she go?
Where did my love run?
I want it back the way it wasI saw you in leather
Oh a bit of a rebel
And the dance of my lips while it's glued to yours
Yeah they were
And do you believe it
And you can't decieve it
But love from swung my face onto this day
And now I'm singingOh oh oh where did she go?
Where did my love run?
I want it back the way it wasOh oh oh give me the time
Give me the clock 'cause
I want it back the way it was'Cause love can be so blind
And I was just too kind
And she thinks I'm fake and everybody knows (everybody knows)
(Yeah they do) and I was all for it
And then she stung like a hornet
When she seeps me I'm sure it will be the last
Now I'm singingOh oh oh where did she go? (Where did she go?)
Where did my love run
I want it back the way it was
Yeah yeah yeahOh oh oh give me the time (give me the time)
Give me the clock 'cause
I want it back the way it wasOh oh oh where did she go?
Where did my love run
I want it back the way it wasOh oh oh give me the time (give me the time)
Give me the clock 'cause
I want it back the way it wasOh oh oh where did she go?
Where did my love run
I want it back the way it wasOh oh oh give me the time (give me the time)
Give me the clock 'cause
I want it back the way it was
