

Longing and Waiting

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

When we was talking on the phone last night
You said you woke up wet from a dream envisioning you loving me, cold sweat, body shaking,
Oh, you got nobody there hold you. And I'm longing and waiting I'm longing and waiting. Best time I ever had, was with you In the midnight time is what I'm looking for,
trench coat butt naked,
we got a lot of catching up to do, and I'm longing and waiting I'm longing and waiting. And waiting Baby, you know Miss you
I miss you too baby
What if you touch me?
Won't you? Strip down at the front door Eat it off the kitchen floor Ride it to the bedroom Give you what you're waiting for You've been waiting so patiently baby Turn it on, take a shower, love you down after hours say baby you're the only one I'm looking for let's play for a while.
Turn it on, take a shower,
look down after hours, you'd know
say baby you're the only one I'm looking for let's play for a while. Turn it on, take a shower, look down after hours say baby you're the one that I'm looking for let's play for a while.
Turn it on, take a shower,
say baby you're the one that I'm looking for

let's play for a while.Baby, baby, baby
