

New Breath

Clear Convictions

better days, better life, here I am ready to fight this was never gets over I quit from a past full of empty lies that corrupts my heart
but now I am forgiven.
what was better for me to live right or die for the bad decisions I chose now I prefer, die trying to live for you almighty god
