

Can You Live Without

Guy Forsyth

In times of trouble, we decide what we need.
What we take with us, what we leave.
And how much of your answers can be believed,
Nothing's gonna save you if you're deceived. Can you live without water for five days?
Can you live without shopping when you get paid?
Can you live without having someone to blame?
Can you live without the loser of your game? Did you ever doubt you'd have your house on the hill?
Can you live without all the folks who never will?
Can you live without your dope, whatever it may be?
Kind bud, Budweiser, it works the same for me...
Can you live without her?
Can you live without...
Can you live without her breath on your neck?
Can you live without the laughter and the sex?
Did you ever doubt you'd have her picture on the wall?
Can you live without anybody there at all?
Can you live without the callous on your knees?
Can you live without the scar that no one sees?
Can you live without living by degrees?
Can you live without doing exactly as you please? (Gm - F - Eb - Bb)
