

Cyborg

WhoMadeWho

[1] x2:

fight for your right to be yourself my friend reclaim the street again and againbut don't plead no need

don't plead[chorus] x2:

hey, trickster, are you lonely inside? cyborg cinderella as woman tide(?)

twist and shout

gentle and kind

the cyborg cinderella is in your mindlooking on the people walking side by side they look like there's answer when you want some from the sky don't get too close, cause there're all strangers don't say hello - it will make you feel...[chorus]looking on the people can you tell'em apart?

we see working ants - you need to find your queen cuddle your queen, she'll make you belong all made of steel and she's wearing a thong[chorus] + mix of [1] x2
