

She's a Witch

Monster Truck

You were a nightmare baby, and I don't know why I love you like I do.

You were out all night, doin' nothin' right,

Never tellin' me the honest truth.

My heart keeps breakin, you keep takin'

Everything that I've ever known.

I'm a wiser man cuz you tore me up

And knocked me down from upon my throne.

She looked good to the eye

But her spirit is full of lie

That girl's got a demon in her soul

Watch out Alright, yeah

Time and time again, I was told

Stay away from her, she's a witch

But I got hooked on her siren song

And she cured my every itch.

What I got lately, she got crazy

And a fire lit up in her eye.

Born unto the seven gates of hell

It's how she planned out my demise.

What you said my friend,

"That woman will be your end."

That girl got a demon in her soul.

That girl got a demon in her soul, yeah!(Got a demon in her soul)

She got a demon

(Got a demon in her soul)

In her soul

(Got a demon in her soul)

Ohhh, that girl

(Got a demon in her soul)

Got a demon

(Got a demon in her soul)

In her soul, yeah

(Got a demon in her soul)

Oh yeah!That girl got a demon in her soul

(Got a demon in her soul)

That girl got a demon in her soul

(Got a demon in her soul)

That girl got a demon in her soul

(Got a demon in her soul)

That girl got a demon in her soul, oh yeah!
