

Give Me Tonite

Will Smith

Uh, check, check
Yo, yo, yo Across the room, shared a little daze with me
Crazy momma, how your scent play with me
Eyes covered, hide in your heart, angelic lookin'
Fakin' disinterest but I can tell you're lookin' Face to face an' eye to eye stance with me
I didn't even say nothin', I felt you wanna dance with me
You pushed me back a little when I kissed your hand
Said you was attracted to me truly but you had a man I put my finger up, don't say nothin'
He ain't here, is he? We could play or somethin'
He at the crib? Oh, I see you live with him
What you gonna get married to him an' have some kids with him? Us could be just a weekend thing
Just a weekday thing, just a thing, ma
Look we could have everything else
Before the night, let me have you to myself, girl, holla at me You can have the rest of your life, baby
Give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life, sugar
Give me tonight You can have the rest of your life, baby
Just give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life, sugar
Just give me tonight, give me tonight Big Will comin' through like whoo whoo
Tra-Knox comin' through with whoo whoo
These girls off the hook, ain't they?
Think about, what, what? Baby, girl, you know exactly what I want
No, I'm not tryin' to replace your man
I just want one night to touch you all over Baby, girl, I talk secret rendezvous
Look at my eyes, I'm down with you
All I'm tryin' to do is change the view for a moment or two Baby, girl, I don't wanna think if you had to have
Baby, I don't wanna be alone
So you got me all in the zone, could you feel my joints, baby? You can have the rest of your life, baby
Give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life, sugar
Give me tonight You can have the rest of your life, baby
Just give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life, sugar
Just give me tonight, give me tonight Think of the length of your life as 100 yards long
Give me a quarter inch, that's all I'm askin'
Do the math, I'm the sun, you the earth
It's U.N.I. verse, an' it's the worst since I thirst To taste your nectar, I know you got a life, momma
Trust me, I don't wanna bring ya life drama

I can barely hear myself think, slide with me
Dip out the side door, take a ride with me
Let me hear about what you think about
What you need to do, the things you dream about?
Your body with me but I know where your heart is at
Let it ring, ma, call him back
Wishin' I could stop the clock to make it last with ya
Am I goin' to be home alone with a glass slipper?
Is it a sin to pretend with another fella?
Midnight the story ends like Cinderella
You can have the rest of your life, baby
Give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life, baby, yeah
Give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life, baby
Just give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life, sugar
Just give me tonight, give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life, baby
Give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life, sugar
Give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life, baby
Just give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life, sugar
Just give me tonight, give me tonight
