Blood Like Cream

Red Fang

I refuse to sleep
I will not eat i'm drowning in my bed bind her hands to mine and make her blind she's lost the rest of time babe frothing at the teeth carry him to me, his blood like cream stars that fade away, the light will dissipate and carve another name
turn it up, turn it up, turn it up
just before I take you
just before I take you paint your lips with blood and clean your eyes you've stripped away the skin
babe frothing at the teeth
just before I take you
just before I take you
cancer of thinking think you've been left behind(?) all that your wasting wasting away
turn it up, turn it up, turn it up
just before I take you
