

Pasture of Muppets

Fenix TX

It won't be long until you learn about this one
Is there any reason you can't say?
I must be wrong, thought I was the perfect son
And all I want it room to breathe Say what you want, but I'm running again
Do what you want, but I'm running again
Say what you want, but I'm running again
You can do what you want, but you'll never breathe like me
Bleed like me, walk the talk or think like me
Breathe like me, bleed like me you'll never be like me Can't hold me down, scream and I won't hear a sound
There's a lot about me you don't know
Throw in the towel, give it up, you've lost this round
I think it's time for me to go Say what you want, but I'm running again
Do what you want, but I'm running again
Say what you want, but I'm running again
You can do what you want, but you'll never breathe like me
Bleed like me, walk the talk or think like me
Breathe like me, bleed like me you'll never be like me Say what you want, but I'm running again
Do what you want, but I'm running again
Say what you want, but I'm running again
Do what you want, but you'll never ever Say what you want, but I'm running again
Do what you want, but I'm running again
Say what you want, but I'm running again
You can do what you want, but you'll never breathe like me
Bleed like me, walk the talk or think like me
Breath like me, bleed like me, walk the talk or think like me
Breathe like me, bleed like me, walk like me, talk like me
See like me, think like me, you'll never be like me
