

Somewhere Out There Tonight

Mark Chesnutt

Well I'm slippin' on my old party clothes
Wondering if they're still in style
Ain't had 'em on since you've been gone
And that's been a long, long while And I wonder if these old dancing shoes
Will they still feel right?
Guess I'll never know unless I'd go
Somewhere out there tonight Been livin' alone since you've been gone
Hoping you might return
An' I've yet to let a stranger in my door
But I'm feeling more willing than ever before I wonder if I'll feel out of place
Should new arms hold me tight
Guess I'll never know unless I'd go
Somewhere out there tonight Yeah, I wonder if I'll feel out of place
Should new arms hold me tight
Guess I'll never know unless I'd go
Somewhere out there tonight
