A Train To Nowhere

Bad Boys Blue

A train to nowhere
I walk around and I tried to hide
'Cause your eyes, they're telling me good-byeI drive my car, hear the radio
Playing songs that go
Round and around in my mindWhy can't you believe that I'm right?
Why can't you realize there are feelings inside?A train to nowhere that we are riding
We're riding over and over again
A train to nowhereAnd we are gliding
A way that never may happen again
A train to nowhereSo late at night when I want you home
You said no
I would like to stay aloneWhat have I done that you turn this way?
What has happened to us?
Now our love has goneWhy don't you believe in your heart?
Why don't you agree to say sorry and hark?A train to nowhere that we are riding
We're riding over and over again
A train to nowhereAnd we are gliding
A way that never may happen again
A train to nowhereWhy don't you believe in your heart?
Why don't you agree to say sorry and harkA train to nowhere that we are riding
We're riding over and over again
A train to nowhereAnd we are gliding
A way that never may happen again
A train to nowhereA train to nowhere that we are riding
We're riding over and over again
A train to nowhereAnd we are gliding
A way that never may happen again
A train to nowhereA train to nowhere that we are riding
We're riding over and over again
A train to nowhereAnd we are gliding
A way that never may happen again
A train to nowhere
