Wooly

What's up!?
Did I give in too much,
Or was it never enough?
The walls are rising up,
Is it too late to learn?
(It's time,)
(Starting to turn on me as if I stole its memory!)
(Left alone,)
(I'm gone and forgotten,)
(So close to breaking me out!)
And I wish you well,
On the storm giving you hell,
So take cover,
'Cause I'm not the only one,
I'm not the only one
(Let's go!)
I'm not the only one,
You're killing everyone,
I'm not the only one
You're never close enough,
You're too far behind
Stripped to the bone,
No heart to find
(I'm falling,)
(Nothing to break my fall!)
(I'm dying,)
(I won't feel anything at all!)
And I wish you well,
On the storm giving you hell,
So take cover,
'Cause I'm not the only one,

I'm not the only one
I wish you well,
You won't drag me to hell,
And you''ll never,
You'll be the only one,
You'll be the only one
Come back to me,

Your heart's not breathing
Come, come back to me,
Your heart's not breathing
(Please don't drag me down with you,)
(Never!)
(Dragging me down with you!)
Please don't drag me down,
(Please don't drag me down with you!)
Never
(Never!)
(Dragging me down with you)
I'm the storm giving you hell,
So take cover,
'Cause I'm not the only one
And I wish you well,
I'm the storm giving you hell,
So take cover,
'Cause I'm not the only one,
I'm not the only one
I wish you well,
You won't drag me to hell,
And you'll never,
You'll be the only one,
You'll be the only one
