Family First

Whitney Houston,Cissy Houston Dionne Warwick & Fam

Oooh Yeah
Nothing's better than family,
For the ones who love you so
Be a shoulder to cry on when you are in need
They will never leave you alone when your friends bring you down
And they drag you through the dirt
And nobody is around
They will carry you through the hurtJust remember that family comes first where you gonna run to? when no one is around
Do you think how dare they will love you.
When your face is on the ground? (face is on the ground),
When you feel your strength is almost gone
And When your heart is getting weak (getting weak)
And you don't think you can keep holding on
And they stand for your feet (just remember)
Family comes first
I can see you crying - someone broke your heart, Instead of being with those who love you, you spend time apart, It's because you think they won't understand The pain you're going through, So you don't reach out your hand for them, 'til they'll pull and reach for you.
Just remember that family comes first
where you gonna run to? when no one is around
Do you think how dare they will love you.
When your face is on the ground? (face is on the ground),
When you feel your strength is almost gone
And When your heart is getting weak (getting weak)
And you don't think you can keep holding on
And they stand for your feet (just remember)
Family comes first
Don't you be ashamed of your family, put you into this earth, and thats what its worth unconditionally, sometimes you may disagree and wont see eye to eye
Don't you run away they will be right by your side ooooh ohhhWhere you gonna run to? when no one is around
Do you think how dare they will love you.
When your face is on the ground? (face is on the ground),

When you feel your strength is almost gone
And When your heart is getting weak (getting weak)
And you don't think you can keep holding on
And they stand for your feet (just remember)
Family comes first
yeahyeah (yeah yeah yeah)
Comes first
