

African Child

Mash & S

Born in a rich land of Africa
Too innocent to conceive the heaven in disguise..mnnhhh
Raised in less fortune homes and eager to make a difference
But having no meansâ€to let their dreams hatch
Frail hope ever despair
Is the only light they see through the dark tunnel..mmnnhhh
Left to the hands of the merciful
Life is taught you in the toughest way
They take your kindness for weakness
The silence for being in there speechless
They donâ€™t know the pain you seethe withinâ€you

Coz youâ€™re an African child (Africa)
Coz youâ€™re an African child (Africa)
Coz youâ€™re an African child (Africa)
Africa yeah oh

Raised up here in Africa
Grew up in Africa
Am a born of Africa
I breathe Africa

Coz youâ€™re an African child (Africa)
Coz youâ€™re an African child (Africa)
Coz youâ€™re an African child (Africa)
Africa yeah oh

Born in a rich land of Africa
Too innocent to conceive the heaven in disguise
Raised in less fortune homes and eager to make a difference
But having no meansâ€to let their dreams hatch
Frail hope ever despair
Is the only light they see through the dark tunnel
Life is taught you in the toughest way
They take your kindness for weakness
The silence for being in there speechless

They donâ€™t know the pain you see the withinâ€™ you

Coz youâ€™re an African child (Africa)

Coz youâ€™re an African child (Africa)

Coz youâ€™re an African child (Africa)

Africa yeah oh

Raised up here in Africa

Grew up in Africa

Am a born of Africa

I breathe Africa
