Summer Long

Killing Heidi

I am just a dreamer,
you are just my dream,
taking me to places,
the likes I've never seen.
I am looking out of the window of a plane,
all the clouds are couches calling out your name.
There can't be an answer, no-one is to blame.
All summer long, all summer long,
summer long.
I am like a record,
spinning 'round again.
You are like the listener,
waiting to press play.
Take another chance on writing out your name.
Choose another colour,
chalk it up again.
There can't be an answer,

no-one is to blame.
All summer long, all summer long,
summer long.
I am just a dreamer,
you are just my dream,
spinning out to places,
the likes I've never seen.
I am looking out of the window of a plane,
all the clouds are couches calling out your name.
There can't be an answer, no-one is to blame.
All summer long, all summer long,
summer long, summer long.
Ohh, all summer long, all summer long, summer long, summer long.
Yeah, all summer song, all summer long, summer long, summer long.
Yeah, all summer song, all summer long, summer long, summer long.
Ohh, all summer long.
