(h. knight/ m. chapman)

Producer: trevor horn

Album: wildest dreams (96)

Special guest: antonio banderas (european version)

Special guest: barry white (american version)The sun goes down

And the moon comes up

My heart is pumping for you

And a mad thing startsNever in your wildest dreams

Did you ever get this feeling

Never in your wildest dreams

Never in your wildest dreams

Could it ever be this easy

Never in your wildest dreamsThe night is hot outside your window

I hear people walking, people talking

I smell your skin, I feel you breathing

Don't let me go, not yet, not yet, not yet, not yetNever in your wildest dreams

Did you ever get this feeling

Never in your wildest dreams

Never in your wildest dreams

Did it ever get this easy

Never in your wildest dreamsThe world is slowly turning

As it turns I see your face, touch your eyes, your lips, spaceWe've arrived at the place where they open hearts

And fill them up with love, filled with love, filled with love

This one's pumping for you

As a mad thing startsNever in your wildest dreams

Did you ever get this feeling

Never in your wildest dreams

Never in your wildest dreams

Did it ever feel this easy

Never in your wildest dreams(antonio banderas - european version only)

Llegamos a un lugar donde abriremos el corazon

E lo llenaremos con amor, lleno de amor (ooh sacrifice)

El mio palpita por ti

As a mad thing starts (ooh sacrifice)Oh baby, no baby (ooh sacrifice)

Never in my wildest dreams (ooh sacrifice)
