You Don't Have To Tell Me

Spectrals

I struggled with his lips,
But I could read yours from the other side of the room,
If I could wish the disco ball out of the roof,
You could have your first date in the A&E,
That's mean,
But,
Don't dare ring me after,
You don't have to tell me,
Don't dare ring me me after,
Don't even dial.Did it have to be "Tainted Love"?
Of all the songs in the world,
He doesn't know the meaning,
Boy's like him they never do.Don't dare ring me after,
You don't have to tell me,
Don't dare ring me me after,
Don't even dial.This night's war from here on in x 2You don't have to tell me,
I get the picture,
But should I have to sit through this?
I don't need to see you paint it.Don't dare ring me after,
You don't have to tell me,
Don't dare ring me me after,
Don't even dial.Don't dare ring me after,
You don't have to tell me,
Don't dare ring me me after,
Don't even dial.
