Table for Two

Caedmon's Call

Danny and I spent another late night
Over pancakes
Talkin' 'bout soccer
And how every man's just the sameWe made speculation
On the who's and the when's of our futures
And how everyone's lonely
But still we just couldn't complainAnd how we just hate being alone
Could I have missed my only chance
And now I'm just wasting my time
By looking aroundBut you know I know better
I'm not gonna worry 'bout nothing
'Cause if the birds and the flowers survive
Then I'll make it okayI'm given a chance and a rock
See which one breaks a window
See which one keeps me up
All night and into the dayBecause I'm so scared of being alone
That I forget what house I live in
But it's not my job to wait by the phone
For her to callThis day's been crazy
But everything's happened on schedule
From the rain and the cold
To the drink that I spilled on my shirt'Cause you knew how you'd save me
Before I fell dead in the garden
And you knew this day
Long before you made me out of dirtAnd you know the plans that you have for me
And you can't plan the end and not plan the means
And so I suppose I just need some peace
Just to get me to sleep
