

Sisters & Brothers

Sandra

Count on my kisses

and children at play

Do you Remember?

its so far away.....Give us back to the truth

Cause divided we fall Sisters and Brothers are growing so tall

Strangers and lovers made fools of us all Where is the Laughter?

that ends with our pain.

where are the Summers?

without any rain.

can they ever return ?

all those years i recall..Sisters and Brothers are growing so tall

Strangers and lovers made fools of us all If you can hear me, I need you right now.....Sisters and Brothers are growing so Tall

Stangers and Lovers made fools of us all
