Seven Seas

John Allred

Sitting by the window all day thinking of you
Watching the days go by, I started to cry
But they weren't tears of sadness they only meant I love you
And I wanna tell you girl that I, oh, II'll travel 'round the seven seas for you
It's written in the melody I adore you
I wrote my love a symphony
To show you there's nothing I won't doBaby I'll walk around the China Wall for you
If there's a way I'll do it all for you
Anything you want me to
You know I would doPeople think I'm crazy, they say I'm just a nothing
Letting my life pass me by, believing you're with me
Well I can't speak for no one but in my heart I know you love me, yes
And that's why I'll always tell you I, oh I, oh I, oh II'll travel 'round the seven seas for you
It's written in the melody I adore you
I wrote my love a symphony
To show you there's nothing I won't doBaby I'll walk around the China Wall for you
If there's a way I'll do it all for you
Anything you want me to
You know I would doI'll travel 'round the seven seas for you
It's written in the melody I adore you
I wrote my love a symphony
To show you there's nothing I won't doBaby I'll walk around the China Wall for you
If there's a way I'll do it all for you
Anything you want me to
You know I would do
Baby, you know I would do, baby, you know I would doI'll travel 'round the seven seas for you
It's written in the melody I adore you
I wrote my love a symphony
To show you there's nothing I won't doBaby I'll walk around the China Wall for you
If there's a way I'll do it all for you
Anything you want me to
You know I would do
