

Black Rainbows

Velvet Acid Christ

Hope is something you don't have.
The eyes that look through all these pages.
The one that's devilishly foolish.
The eyes that make us gray.Once...
I lost my foot again.
I slip and fall to you.
I have no right at all.I fall dead.
You miss me.
I break my promise to keep.
You all...
Want black rainbows.
I fail.
I fail.The ones that call...
you out to find you.
They rest their heads to faint their death.
Once the minds will cover you in dust---dirt.
To make us feel alone again, because you won't let go again.And I confess with...
You...
You make me bleed again.
You make me live again.
You make me cry again.I fall dead.
You miss me.
I break in time.
For you.
You want black rainbows.I fail.
I fail.
I fail.
