

Hello

Sonny & Cher

Hi, this is SonnyAnd CherAnd this is the other side of our record
When you cut a record
Every one always asks you
What you are gonna put on the other side
And you usually put another song
Sometimes it's hard to get another song
Or to think of another song
And I thought it would be nice
Just to get a chance to talk to you
And say thank you
For everything you've done for us
I don't see why this can't be done
I hope you agree
What do you think Cher?That's OK with meIt's OK with you
It's OK with me tooI think you should put the music down
Before the words downWhat music?To this songThere is no songNo, reallyReally what?
There is no song
I'm just plinking on the piano
I only know seven chords any ways
So it doesn't make any difference
What do you mean
We should put the music firstI'm not gonna say anything to you Come on SonnyYou're not gonna say anything, why?Because you're making me embarrassedDon't be embarrassed
You're just talking to a microphone
And that's all
You have nothing to say at allNoI didn't know you were bashful
When you get up on stage
You're not bashful
Now you're talking to a microphone
You're in a studio all by yourself
And you're bashful
You don't like this song?No, I don't like this songI'll try to write you a new one
I like it, I think
Well Cher you got to say something
Cher don't be bashfulI can't think of any thing to sayYou always think of something
To say around the house
You never without words thenI can't help it, I'm bashfulOK I glad I found that out
After two years of marriageWell I can sing some thingI don't have a song for you to sing

Well just say somethingHelloThat was very cleverI thought you'd like thatThat's the most original thing you said

Any ways we thought
We break a precedent
And just say hello to every body
And that's the purpose behind this
And thanks againMe tooCher too, bye
