

Lying In Wait

Scream Out Loud

This is the end of the road
My heart on the floor
Everything to lose
Everything to lose

Why can't i just let this go
Cause i had to be the one to watch this all unfold
I can't let the past be the past if i know you're still around
Still around

So take what you want and leave the rest behind
I'll pick up all the pieces on my own
VengeanceÂ sweetÂ vengeanceÂ i'll need you by my side
So i can move on

You put my life on the lineÂ
There is no changing what you've done
Like it would matter anyway
Every time that i think of your voice it makes me sick

So take what you want and leave the rest behind
I'll pick up all the pieces on my own
VengeanceÂ sweetÂ vengeanceÂ i'll need you by my side
So i can move on
Â

You'll get what you deserve when your day comesÂ
Tear this place apart

So take what you want and leave the rest behind
I'll pick up all the pieces on my own
VengeanceÂ sweetÂ vengeanceÂ i'll need you by my side
So i can move on
Just move on

Every time that i think of your voice it makes me sick
