

Won't Go Back

Blues Pills

I've been falling
He's my darling
Feeling less than nothing
I was getting what I deserved
Just like my mother
I lived undercover
If I could have seen it coming
I'd have left a long time ago I been down too long
On the bottom of my empty soul
And I'll never get back
All the years that you stole You see me bleeding I've had enough
I'm already leaving
You won't touch me no more
I packed my things I slam the door
Now I'm the one in control
I won't go back
(Never ever, oooh)
No I won't go back to you
(Never ever, oooh)
I won't go back
(Never ever, oooh)
I will never go never ever never go back to you
(Never ever, oooh) You see me grinning
It's because I'm winning
Leaving the mistakes
I made too many times before I ain't giving you nothing
I just hope that you're suffering
You get what you give
And you treated me bad so long Eight years of my life
I was waiting for a change to come
From what you've done
There's no place that you can run You see me bleeding I've had enough
I'm already leaving
You won't touch me no more
I packed my things I slam the door
Now I'm the one in control
I won't go back
(Never ever, oooh)
No I won't go back to you

(Never ever, oooh)
I won't go back
(Never ever, oooh)
I will never go never ever never go back to you
(Never ever, oooh)There's no truth in you
No use for me to try
All the abuse you do
This is my goodbyeThis time I won't ever go back
Never go back, never go back
No no no
I won't ever go back
No no noYou see me bleeding I've had enough
I'm already leaving you lost my trust
Cause this time I won't ever go
No no no
