

(There's) Always Something There to Remind Me

Dionne Warwick

I walk along the city streets you used to walk along with me
And every step I take recalls how much in love we used to be Well how can I forget you?
When there is always something there to remind me
Always something there to remind me I was born to love you
And I will never be free
You'll always be a part of me When shadows fall, I pass a small cafe where we would dance at night
And I can't help recalling how it felt to kiss and hold you tight Oh how can I forget you?
When there is always something there to remind me
Always something there to remind me I was born to love you
And I will never be free
You'll always be a part of me If you should find you miss the sweet and tender love we used to share
Just come back to the places where we used to go and I'll be there Oh how can I forget you?
When there is always something there to remind me
When there is always something there to remind me I was born to love you
And I will never be free When there is (when there is)
When there is always something there to remind me
Always something there to remind me
Always something there to remind me
Always something there to remind me
